

My event is regular weekly one but with some different features each time - can I submit that?

If your event is much the same every week please don't just repeat your entry time after time as this will soon annoy regular searchers - Make sure you fill out the 'Event Recurrence Information' section of the Submit Event . Better to pick out a different feature of your most interesting meetings - maybe a different speaker or activity for example - and highlight that in occasional listings.