

Is it really free?

Dates-That-Clash does not charge for any of its services.

We just ask that you let your contacts know of the service. If you want to make your entry stand out more and link to your own website you are welcome to and be sure to submit your link to the Links Section.

Other websites charge you to add links and other simple content, we simply don't! Only because we are nice :)